

Banríon Gaels Camogie Club

Childrens Officer

Julieanne Cunnane

Email: childrensofficer.banriongaels.laois@camogie.ie

Role of Club Children's Officer

- To promote awareness of the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Young Players within the club and particularly among the young players and their parents/guardians and mentors.
- To influence policy and practice within the club in order to prioritise young players' needs.
- To ensure all mentors are aware of practice within the code i.e. Travel Permission Forms, Anti-Bullying Policy etc.
- To encourage the involvement of parents/guardians in the club activities and co-operate with parents/guardians in ensuring that each player enjoys her involvement in Camogie.
- To act as an advisory source on best practice in Camogie.
- To liaise with the female mentors assigned to teams, ensuring that she is aware of good practices contained within the Code.
- To ensure that young players know how to make concerns known to appropriate adults or agencies. Information disclosed by a player to the Children's Officer should be dealt with according to the procedures laid down.
- To deal with any complaints or suspected child abuse according to the code.
- To report regularly to the Club Executive Committee.
- To monitor changes in membership and follow up any unusual dropout, absenteeism or club transfers by young players or mentors.
- To attend seminars in relation to Child Protection.

Code of Ethics -

For the club's full document on Code of Ethics please see

Our Games - Our Code available on <http://www.camogie.ie/our-games-our-code.asp>

